

Join some very special guests in the 'World's Longest Toilet Queue' and help solve the global water crisis at the same time.

Lack of access to safe water, adequate sanitation, and hygiene education pose the greatest global environmental health threat.

Be part of the global action and make a stand for water and sanitation. Advocates, students, teachers, educators, and politicians will be on hand to join you in line!

When: March 23rd
1:30 – 1:45 pm

Where: Upper Senate Park Capitol Hill, 200 New Jersey Ave. NW.
