

World Water Day 2010: Events in Washington DC and Around the Country

Events are taking place nationwide on and around March 22 in support of World Water Day. Below are some opportunities for you to take action to help make safe water and sanitation a reality for people around the globe. Take a stand -- Be a voice for the poor and vulnerable around the world who lack access to the basic necessities of water and sanitation. With your help and participation in World Water Day events across the US we can raise awareness and make a difference.
